DECISION ON ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS<sup>1</sup>

On April 3, 2020, Sharon Campbell filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.<sup>2</sup> (the "Vaccine Act"). Petitioner alleges that she "suffer[ed] a syncopal episode resulting in a fall and subsequent fracture of her tibia and fibula" after receiving an influenza vaccine on September 17, 2018. Petition at 1. Petitioner later filed an amended petition alleging both a Table syncope injury and, in the alternative, a cause-in-fact injury of vasovagal reaction triggered by the flu vaccine and leading to the fall and subsequent lower extremity fractures. On January 4, 2023, I issued a decision awarding damages to Petitioner, following damages briefing by the parties. ECF No. 55.

If, upon review, I agree that the identified material fits within this definition, I will redact such material from public access.

Petitioner has now filed a motion for attorney's fees and costs, requesting an award of $87,265.27 (representing $85,931.50 for fees and $1,333.77 for costs). Petitioner's First Application for Fees and Costs, filed Jan. 25, 2023, ECF No. 59. In accordance with General Order No. 9, Petitioner filed a signed statement indicating that she incurred no out-of-pocket expenses. ECF No. 59-4.

Respondent reacted to the motion on February 1, 2023, indicating that he is satisfied that the statutory requirements for an award of attorney's fees and costs are met in this case, but deferring resolution of the amount to be awarded to my discretion. Respondent's Response to Motion at 2-3, 3 n.2, ECF No. 60. The same day, Petitioner filed a reply stating that "Petitioner does not intend to file a substantive reply to Respondent's response." ECF No. 61.

Having considered the motion along with the invoices and other proof filed in connection, I find a reduction in the amount of fees to be awarded appropriate, for the reason set forth below.

ANALYSIS

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs. Section 15(e). Counsel must submit fee requests that include contemporaneous and specific billing records indicating the service performed, the number of hours expended on the service, and the name of the person performing the service. See Savin v. Sec'y of Health & Hum. Servs., 85 Fed. Cl. 313, 316-18 (2008). Counsel should not include in their fee requests hours that are "excessive, redundant, or otherwise unnecessary." Saxton v. Sec'y of Health & Hum. Servs., 3 F.3d 1517, 1521 (Fed. Cir. 1993) (quoting Hensley v. Eckerhart, 461 U.S. 424, 434 (1983)). It is "well within the special master's discretion to reduce the hours to a number that, in [her] experience and judgment, [is] reasonable for the work done." Id. at 1522. Furthermore, the special master may reduce a fee request sua sponte, apart from objections raised by respondent and without providing a petitioner notice and opportunity to respond. See Sabella v. Sec'y of Health & Hum. Servs., 86 Fed. Cl. 201, 209 (2009). A special master need not engage in a line-by-line analysis of petitioner's fee application when reducing fees. Broekelschen v. Sec'y of Health & Hum. Servs., 102 Fed. Cl. 719, 729 (2011).

The petitioner “bears the burden of establishing the hours expended, the rates charged, and the expenses incurred.” Wasson v. Sec’y of Health & Hum. Servs., 24 Cl. Ct. 482, 484 (1991). The Petitioner “should present adequate proof [of the attorney’s fees and costs sought] at the time of the submission.” Wasson, 24 Cl. Ct. at 484 n.1. Petitioner’s counsel “should make a good faith effort to exclude from a fee request hours that are excessive, redundant, or otherwise unnecessary, just as a lawyer in private practice ethically is obligated to exclude such hours from his fee submission.” Hensley, 461 U.S. at 434.

ATTORNEY FEES

The rates requested for work performed through the end of 2022 are reasonable and consistent with our prior determinations, and will therefore be adopted. ECF No. 59 at 1-2. Petitioner has also requested the same 2023 attorney and paralegal hourly rates as were paid in 2022. Id. I find these hourly rates to be reasonable.

Regarding the number of hours billed, I deem the total amount of time devoted to briefing damages to be excessive. See Status Report, filed May 12, 2022, ECF No. 45 (reporting an impasse in damages discussions); Petitioner’s Damages Brief, filed June 13, 2022, ECF No. 49; Petitioner’s Reply Brief on Damages, filed Aug. 23, 2022, ECF No. 52. Petitioner’s counsel expended approximately 34.9 hours drafting the damages brief and 14.7 hours drafting the reply brief, totaling 49.6<sup>3</sup> hours. ECF No. 59-2 at 11-12.

My above calculation does not include time spent preparing the initial demand which would have informed this later work – 9.7 hours – and I am therefore awarding fees associated with that task in full.<sup>4</sup> Nor am I counting time spent communicating with Petitioner and preparing additional supporting documentation such as affidavits or signed declarations, which is also being awarded in full. See, e.g., ECF No. 59-2 at 12 (entry dated 7/13/23).

It is unreasonable for counsel to spend so much time briefing the issue of damages in this case, once the sum in question is calculated, and where the issues presented are not complex. I have identified numerous cases (which do not involve the same injury but may reasonably be compared to time spent in this matter),<sup>5</sup> in which attorneys have accomplished this task in about half the time.<sup>6</sup> See, e.g., Hernandez v. Sec'y of Health & Hum. Servs., No. 21-1572V (July 21, 2023) (14.7 hours billed for drafting a damages brief); Miles v. Sec'y of Health & Hum. Servs., No. 20-146V (July 20, 2023) (16.4 and 7.2 hours billed for drafting a damages brief and responsive damages brief, respectively); Merchant v. Sec'y of Health & Hum. Servs., No. 20-0450V (July 12, 2023) (15.5 and 2.7 hours billed for drafting a damages brief and responsive damages brief, respectively); Kestner v. Sec'y of Health & Hum. Servs., No. 18-0527V (June 12, 2023) (7.4 and 4.4 hours billed for drafting a damages brief and responsive damages brief, respectively); Piccolotti v. Sec'y of Health & Hum. Servs., No. 20-0135V (June 8, 2023) (11.60 and 3.80 hours billed for drafting a damages brief and responsive damages brief, respectively); Elenteny v. Sec'y of Health & Hum. Servs., No. 19-1972V (May 31, 2023) (16.7 hours billed for drafting a damages brief); Miller v. Sec'y of Health & Hum. Servs., No. 21-1559V (May 30, 2023) (17.5 and 4.5 hours billed for drafting a damages brief and responsive damages brief, respectively); Edminister v. Sec'y of Health & Hum. Servs., No. 19-0184V (May 30, 2023) (15.3 and 3.5 hours billed for drafting a damages brief and responsive damages brief, respectively); Aponte v. Sec'y of Health & Hum. Servs., No. 20-1031V (May 18, 2023) (6.9 hours billed for drafting a damages brief); Gray v. Sec'y of Health & Hum. Servs., No. 20-1708V (May 18, 2023) (5 hours billed for drafting a damages brief); Merson v. Sec'y of Health & Hum. Servs., No. 18-0589V (May 18, 2023) (9.8 hours billed for drafting a damages brief); Rice-Hansen v. Sec'y of Health & Hum. Servs., No. 20-1338V (May 17, 2023) (12.9 and 6.1 hours billed for drafting a damages brief and responsive damages brief, respectively); Horky v. Sec'y of Health & Hum. Servs., No. 20-0239V (May 18, 2023) (5.8 hours billed for drafting a damages brief); Thomson v. Sec'y of Health & Hum. Servs., No. 22-0234V (May 4, 2023) (9.5 and 2.5 hours billed for drafting a damages brief and responsive damages brief, respectively).

<sup>3</sup> This total is calculated as follows: 49.6 hours billed on 5/13/22, 5/14/22, 5/15/22, 6/6/22, 6/8/22, 6/9/22, 6/10/22, 6/13/22, 8/4/22 (two entries), 8/15/22, and 8/16/22 (two entries) by John Howie at a rate of $466.

<sup>4</sup> This time was billed by John Howie in late 2020, using an hourly rate of $466, and in 2022, using an hourly rate of $466, resulting in $4,101.60 in attorney’s fees. ECF No. 59-2 at 6-7, 10.

The circumstances of this case did not warrant devoting so much time to the damages briefing. The primary area of dispute involved the appropriate amount of compensation for Petitioner's past pain and suffering. See Campbell v. Sec'y of Health & Hum. Servs., No. 20-0381V, 2023 WL 1512589, at *4 (Fed. Cl. Spec. Mstr. Jan. 4, 2023). The parties' views differed by $100,000.00 - Petitioner sought $250,000.00, and Respondent countered with $150,000.00. Id. at *5. I ultimately awarded an amount closer to that proposed by Respondent ($230,000.00), but only by $20,000.00 – showing the value of the briefing submitted. However, the amount of hours expended still were excessive.

Of course, having prevailed in this case, a fees award is generally appropriate. See Henderson, 2023 WL 1512589, at *7. But the Act permits only an award of a reasonable amount of attorney's fees. Accordingly, I will reduce the sum to be awarded for damages briefing (a total of 49.60 hours, or $ 23,113.60) by thirty percent. Such an across-the-board reduction (which I am empowered to adopt)<sup>7</sup> fairly captures the overbilling evidenced by this work, without requiring me to act as a "green eye-shaded accountant" in identifying with specificity each objectionable task relevant to this one sub-area of work performed on the case. This results in a reduction of $6,934.08.<sup>8</sup>

ATTORNEY COSTS

Petitioner requests $1,333.77 in overall costs. ECF No. 59-3. She has provided receipts for all but expenses of $21.58 for copying and $51.00 for postage. Id. I will nevertheless allow reimbursement of these unsubstantiated costs. And Respondent offered no specific objection to the rates or amounts sought.

CONCLUSION

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs for successful claimants. Section 15(e). Accordingly, I hereby GRANT Petitioner's Motion for attorney's fees and costs. I award a total of $80,331.19 (representing $78,997.42 for fees and $1,333.77 in costs) as a lump sum in the form of a check jointly payable to Petitioner and Petitioner's counsel, John R. Howie, Jr.

In the absence of a timely-filed motion for review (see Appendix B to the Rules of the Court), the Clerk of Court shall enter judgment in accordance with this decision.<sup>9</sup>

<sup>7</sup> Special masters are permitted to employ percentage reductions to hours billed, provided the reduction is sufficiently explained. See, e.g., Abbott v. Sec'y of Health & Hum. Servs., 135 Fed. Cl. 107, 111 (2017); Raymo v. Sec'y of Health & Hum. Servs., 129 Fed. Cl. 691, 702-704 (2016); Sabella v. Sec'y of Health & Hum. Servs., 86 Fed. Cl. 201, 214 (2009).

<sup>9</sup> Pursuant to Vaccine Rule 11(a), the parties may expedite entry of judgment by filing a joint notice renouncing their right to seek review.
